Subject: exculpatory evidence: Afrasiabi's BOOKS

CAUTION - EXTERNAL:

Dear Clerk:

Below are the links for my books, as well as the previously sent forthcoming book which is a compendium of my oped articles, presented as exculpatory evidence that contradicts the government's claim that I engaged in propaganda. My books are praised by well-respected scholars in the field (see authors review section), by Choice, Foreign Affairs, Middle East Journal, a Washington D.C. Bishop, NY University professor of literature, etc. The final section of Iran and Trump is a lengthy chapter on alternative diplomacy, now pursued by the Biden administration. It is outrageous by any civilized standard that the US government has mistreated a well-known author who has consistently helped the cause of prisoners in Iran, inter-faith dialogue, and that of US-Iran peace like this.

The authors contend that a US-Iran war is probable but not inevitable because of the role of several intervening variables, such as the prohibitively high costs of such a war and its cascading...
